County Picks I-27 By-Pass Route Friday

In Saturday Clash

Bufs Face Arlington

BY BENNY TURNER
The West Texas State Buffaloes will meet the hapless, winless University of Texas at Arlington Mavericks at 8 p.m. Saturday in Buffalo Bowl.

A new head coach and new nickname has not helped UTA snap their losing streak which now stands at 13. The University of Texas at El Paso shellacked the Mavericks 38-9 in their season opener. They have failed to cross the double stripe for a score since that game four weeks ago as they fell 42-0 to Texas Christian and then 23-0 to Toledo.

But head Buff coach Gene Mayfield warns, "I would say they are on a par with Lamar or perhaps better. None of the three teams they have faced have been exactly patsies." Offensively UTA will place most of their hopes in Tyler Junior College transfer John Harvey who last year was named a JUCO all-American.

Harvey, who boasts 6-2 x 183 pound dimensions, leads his team in both pass receiving and rushing yardage. He has snagged nine passes for 48 yards and has carried the ball 40 times for 87 yards.

Mayfield spoke highly of Harvey saying, "He has as much potential as anybody we will play. A couple of years ago nearly every college in the state thought he was the best high school back anywhere."

Neither Harvey or his teammates have yet to gell this season. The offensive unit, which will be led by Steve Cox formerly of Odessa Permian fame, has scored only nine points this season while the defense was allowed 103 points.

Cox recently took the team reins over from Dave Taylor. "Cox played for me at Permian and he can really throw the ball," Mayfield commented.

As far as injuries go the Bufs should be in good shape. David Denny, who has knee problems for several weeks is "alright", according to Mayfield, as are defensive end Thomas Tate and center Dwayne Sexton. (See BUFFS, page 3)

Former WTSU Student's Wife, Child Killed

Mrs. Mitzi Spahic, 24, and her five-month-old daughter, died of injuries suffered in an automobile accident near the entrance of Fort Campbell, Ky., just before noon Monday.

Mrs. Spahic was the wife of Spec. 5 Ehrem Spahic, a graduate of West Texas State University.

Mrs. Spahic died at 2:20 p.m. in the base hospital. The daughter died at 9:20 p.m. in Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville, Tenn., after being transferred from the base hospital.

Spahic was released from the base hospital after being (See SPAHIC, page 4)

PRPC Head Speaks At WGC Banquet

Ernest Clark, executive director of the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission, will be guest speaker at the Women's Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting Tuesday night.

Speech topic for the evening will be "PRPC-A Service to Local Units of Government."

Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. with the speaker following. Charge is $2 plus tax, according to Mrs. Kenneth Olsen, president.

Mrs. Olsen said the meeting will be open to the public and will be held in the Community Center.

Clark said he will explain the PRPC activities and how the services offered benefit local units of government.

"I will also review some of the things I see in the future for the city of Canyon," Clark predicted.

He noted that PRPC can assist local governments in implementing programs transportation planning, housing, land use planning, health, conservation and development if water resources, Man Power, aging, senior citizens, comprehensive water and sewer multi-county county planning.

"I want to explain how we are serving local units of governments and what activities we are involved in," Clark explained.

The director came to Amarillo in 1968 from Stillwater, Okla., where he served as assistant city manager.

Before that he served as internal safety and training administrator in Amarillo for two years.

Clark was born Oct. 17, 1934, and graduated from high school in Portsmouth, Va. He received a B.S. degree (See PRPC, page 3)

"Whew! Am I ever glad that chore is over," Canyon High School sophomore Roy Schickedanz seems to be saying. He and other members of the sophomore class constructed this giant bonfire. The lighting of the bonfire, scheduled to follow the junior varsity game tonight, will signal the beginning of the 1971 Canyon Homecoming.

Recommend Route Tonight

City Dads Eye By-Pass

City Commissioners will make a recommendation on I-27 Canyon by-pass and will open CATV bids at their regular session at 7 p.m. tonight in the Community Center.

Commissioners will review a recommendation from the city planning and zoning board on the by-pass which was made last Friday evening.

The board recommended the city support route E, which is the western route through the city. The planning and zoning board also recommended that if the city could not negotiate with the highway department on route E, then the city should support route B.

City backed route B, which runs east of the city, last year. Highway department recommended route A, which runs some 1100 feet east of route B and connects with South Washington Road, at a public hearing last week.

City Manager George Louder said a recommendation would be sent to the highway department in time to have it submitted as part of the public hearing record. All statements must be entered within a 10-day period after the hearing to be part of the record, according to highway district engineer Charles Smith.

Louder said CATV proposals will be opened at the Monday meeting tonight, but bids will not be awarded.

He also noted that bids for 1,000 feet of fire hose will be opened. The 1,000 feet of hose is a yearly purchase by the city.

recommended route A which is the far eastern route that runs southeast from Stuckey's and connects with South Washington Road south of highway 217.

Route E will cut southwest from Stuckey's and hit the western part of the city, then cut back to connect with U.S. 87 south of Canyon.

Route B, supported by the chamber and the city commission last year, will run east of the city, but will be about 1100 feet nearer Canyon. (See CHAMBER, page 3)

Chamber Supports Route E By-Pass

Canyon Chamber of Commerce board of directors voted to support I-27 Canyon by-pass route E—a change in their recommendation a year ago of route B.

President Eddie Knowles explained to his board all indications show local businessmen want route E, which would cut through the western section of the city, rather than route B, which passes east of the city some 2.8 miles.

He noted a poll taken earlier in the week of board members produced eight for the western corridor, one desiring another route, and three not reached.

Knowles said petitions circulated among merchants show around 80 to 85 per cent favor the western route.

The board expressed a desire to present a written recommendation to the highway department as part of the public hearing proceedings.

The hearing was held last Tuesday by the highway department. All statements must be presented within 10 days of the hearing.

Merchants Request Reconsideration

BY MARGO WILLIAMS

Randall County Commissioners agreed to reconsider their recommendation on the I-27 Canyon by-pass route after business leaders and farmers met with the court Monday.

A decision will be made Friday when they reconvene. "They have brought up some significant points," declared Commissioner Jim Fletcher.

"There are some things I want to check out," Commissioner Bill Butler stressed.

A feud is brewing between the Texas Highway Department which has selected an eastern route around Canyon, and the merchants of the city, who favor a western by-pass.

The hornet's nest was stirred last week at a public hearing sponsored by the highway department. District engineer Charles Smith recommended Route A, which would leave U.S. 87-60 at Stuckey's and cut southeast connecting with South Washington Road about 2.3 miles south of Highway 217.

As of Wednesday noon, the Chamber of Commerce and the city Planning and Zoning Board had backed route E, which would run through the western portion of the city.

Canyon city commission meets tonight and will discuss the by-pass and make a recommendation.

Statements must be to the highway department district office by Friday in order to be part of the public hearing proceedings.

Last year, city fathers approved route B, which would run about 1100 feet closer to Canyon than route A. County commissioners

Police Chief, Wife Injured In Accident

Canyon Police Chief Calvin Costley and his wife received injuries in a two-car accident in Amarillo Tuesday night, and remained in Northwest Texas Hospital Wednesday afternoon.

According to investigating officers Mrs. Costley was driving the 1971 car, which is owned by the city of Canyon.

Both Mayor Manly Bryan and City Manager George Louder had no comment pending further information on the accident.

Lt. J.T. Carver of the Amarillo Police Department said the Costley vehicle was traveling east on Third Street when it was in collision at 10:55 p.m. with a car driven by David Jerald Boss of 2411 S. Aldridge in Amarillo. The Boss car was going south on Eastern.

Officers said the investigation was continuing Wednesday.

Boss and the Costleys are listed in satisfactory condition at Northwest Texas Hospital. Mrs. Costley received abrasions on her head, and the police chief received neck and back injuries.

J.L. Burns, a passenger in the Boss car, was treated and released from the hospital Tuesday night.

Two Holidays Observed

Post office and the two banks in Canyon will be closed two Monday's this month in observance of public holidays.

Monday, Oct. 11 the businesses will close for Columbus Day, and Monday, Oct. 25, Veterans Day will be observed.

Both dates were declared mandatory bank holidays by the Texas legislature, and the U.S. Congress declared these days as holidays for federal offices.

Girls Tackle Man's World In Agriculture

BY MARGO WILLIAMS

It's a first at Canyon High School, and it's difficult to decide who is having a harder time adjusting — the boys or the girls.

But after six weeks, both sides are beginning to appreciate the role a girl can play in an ag class at Canyon High School.

It took toughing out the weird looks, a bit of razing, and overcoming some embarrassing situations, but Jan Henson and Donna Record made the grade with the fellows — all for an education.

Both girls are seeking careers in agriculture. Donna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Record, wants to become a veterinarian.

Jan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nolon Henson, will major in agriculture business or management next year probably at West Texas State University.

Donna is a junior this year and hopes to have two full years in high school agriculture before she begins her veterinary studies.

"I have lived around ag all my life and I wanted to know more about it," explained Donna, who lives with her parents on the Currie Ranch northeast of Canyon.

"I can tell most of the diseases an animal might get and I have shown such an interest many vets have encouraged me to continue with my interest," she declared. (See GIRLS, page 3)

CHS Homecoming Set

The lighting of the traditional bonfire tonight will set off a two day flurry of activities scheduled for the 1971 Canyon High homecoming celebration.

Activities planned for homecoming include the bonfire, a homecoming assembly, a spaghetti supper, the queen coronation and the Eagle—Pampa game.

The bonfire, built by the sophomore class, will be ignited immediately following the Canyon junior varsity tilt, which begins at 7:30 p.m.

A homecoming assembly is scheduled to get underway at 2:15 p.m. Friday at the high school for all students and Canyon High exes.

Tucker, president of the Canyon High student body, will be the mistress of ceremonies.

Jerry Jacobs, superintendent of schools, will present the welcoming address, while the CHS choir will provide entertainment.

Eddie Knowles, president of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, will name the Chamber's annual scholastic award recipients. The awards are presented to students who have maintained a four year average of 94 or better.

The four homecoming queen finalists will be presented to the students and exes by Mrs. Charlotte Brantley. The four finalists are Marilyn Read, Shelley Davis, Gail Thompson and Joy Williams.

A spaghetti supper has been planned from 5 to 8 p.m. Friday at the Canyon High cafeteria. The supper is being sponsored by the Canyon Band Booster Club.

Tickets are $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for students. Proceeds from the event will be used for regular band activities.

The crowning of the queen will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Buffalo Bowl. The homecoming activities will come to a close with the Canyon Eagle Pampa Harvester game, which will begin at 8 p.m.

Jan Henson is shown with her heifer, which she has purchased and cares for as her class project in agriculture. Jan and Donna Record are the first girls at Canyon High School to take ag and the first female members of FFA.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Ben Barnes is going to get the challenge of his life in his race for governor next year.

I think that challenge will come from Dolph Briscoe rather than Ralph Yarborough, whom it appears will also be a candidate.

Recent polls show Briscoe running strong and I know that there is much sentiment for him in this area.

I look for Barnes to win but even if he were to lose it would only be an episode in a long political saga that is just beginning.

For Yarborough, who undoubtedly will be defeated, it will be a last hurrah. Yarborough is an old campaigner and if he makes the race he will draw some blood.

But I think Yarborough has allied himself too close to the leftwing liberals to suit Texas taste.

Remember Chappaquiddick?

A lot of folks in Texas remember how Yarborough flew to Teddy Kennedy's defense in that sordid affair. Yarborough's name is linked too closely to those of Ted Kennedy, George McGovern and Gene McCarthy to be palatable.

fare to enough Texans to get him elected to state-wide office again in my opinion.

People in the hinterlands are no longer supporting him as they once did. This was the case in the Senate race last year in which he lost rural areas and was swept out of office.

Educators appearing before a congressional committee last week told legislators that the federal government must immediately take over funding and operation of public schools in many urban areas.

They said the areas in question are too poor to finance schools themselves and must shift the load to the federal government.

If the federal government supplies the money then it will run the schools.

If the national government takes over operation of schools in Cleveland and Chicago then how long will it be before it is running the school in Canyon?

Claude "Hoot" Gibson, talented mentor of the Tulsa Hurricanes, is well aware of his own abilities. I talked to him after the game last Saturday night and cocky is an understatement for the 32-year-old Golden Hurricane coach.

I asked him how he thought Gene Mayfield was doing as a college coach and Gibson was almost pointedly disparaging in his remarks about the West Texas State mentor.

He said he didn't know why people think it is so hard to move from high school ranks to college coaching when the really tough thing for a coach to do is move down from the pros.

Naturally Hoot "moved down" from the pros to Tulsa.

Gibson had an altercation with an official during the game. After the game he ran up to the man in the stripes and began to vent his feelings verbally.

"Shut up and get off the field," the official told him in no uncertain terms as though he were addressing an errant school boy.

I think Mayfield is going to be a great college coach. I think WT's problem will be in keeping him.

Dr. Hill Writes Autobiography

"Autobiographical Notes on the Life of Joseph Abner Hill" has been released this fall.

Dr. Hill, president-emeritus of West Texas State University, is the author or co-author of six previous volumes.

He became head of the history department at West Texas State Normal College in 1910 when the school was established and became its president eight years later. He retired in 1948.

Dr. Hill and his wife are now residents of the Wesleyan Home in Georgetown.

Ag Department Receives Grant

West Texas State University School of Agriculture received a $5,000 grant from the Texas Cattle Feeders Association in Amarillo this week.

Lloyd Bergsma, executive vice president of the TCF, made the presentation.

The grant will be used to study feed lot diseases and drugs for cattle.

Mesa Agro will provide cattle for the experiment on a custom basis, according to John McNeill, acting head of the animal science department.

Andy Wilks receives the first car decal from Diana Davis, representative of the Canyon Eagle band. Andy drew the original mascot for the proposed band trip to Vienna, Austria and the mascot was reproduced as decals.

FBLA Names Miss Henson

Miss Jan Henson has been named the first Student of the Month by the Future Business Leaders of America at Canyon High School.

The nominating committee chooses recipients on the basis of career-mindedness, achievement in school activities, active membership in FBLA, and getting on well with fellow students.

Miss Henson is this year's president and is the first girl at the school to enroll in vocational agriculture. She recently captured first-place honors at the Tri-State Fair with a prize heifer.

An honor student, she also belongs to the National Honor Society and Future Teachers of America and is the reigning Canyon Noon Lions Club Queen.

Our World

By Ann Brown

From 1946 to 1971, American taxpayers have had their pockets picked of 212 billion dollars for foreign aid. Another $60 billion is scheduled for the same rat hole over the next 6 years according to the chairman of the Foreign Operations Subcommittee on Appropriations. He says only the "taxpayers have the power to stop it." He didn't say how.

According to Chairman Passman, foreign nations are holding 41½ billions of our dollars which we are supposed to redeem in gold on demand. We have about $10 billions in gold to meet their demands.

And all of this in the face of a national debt approaching $400 billion.

How did we get in such a predicament? It is the result of the theory that every problem can be solved by spending somebody else's money.

An individual in this kind of financial straits would be forced into bankruptcy. Is it realistic to expect our nation to fare otherwise?

Is the American taxpayer so rich he can afford to support the rest of the world?

On the contrary, doesn't the average taxpayer have to hold down two jobs or put his wife to work to make ends meet?

Of course, farmers-and their wives-have been working about 16 hours a day, 6 and 7 days a week for years. But as long as they keep an abundant supply of food on American tables at Depression prices-to them not to the consumers-who cares about the farmers?

As sorry as our financial plight is, it is not the worst part of the picture.

David Gumaer, undercover operator for police intelligence, reports that the "spontaneous" riots that have occurred on our streets, campuses, and in our prisons, are largely financed by communist countries.

The money is channeled in through representatives in the United Nations. But where do the communists get the money? "You are paying for your own destruction through foreign aid," says Gumaer.

The target date for the communist takeover, according to Gumaer, is 1973. And he says their program is ahead of schedule. Almost every riot, bombing and police ambush is another step in a well-drawn plan.

The only big hurdle yet to clear is gun registration (followed, of course, by confiscation). If we allow our Constitutional rights to be violated by surrendering our guns, Gumaer says we deserve to be shot with them-exactly what the revolutionaries have in mind.

The revolutionaries, with whom Gumaer "served" for several years, have no fear of courts, their only fear is truth. They have ample legal protection through aid provided by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

And who pays the bills for O.E.O.?

History impartially records every civilization getting exactly what it deserved. Decadent Rome, interested only in bread and circuses, perished. But the slaves who provided the bread and created the circuses, perished, too.

The modern slave is the American taxpayer. The new foreign aid bill has already passed the House, and is before the Senate.

What can the taxpayers do? We can talk to God about it, and write or wire our Senators and the President to stop giving away our money-kill foreign aid and the Poverty Program.

Band Boosters Plan Supper

A spaghetti supper will be served from 5 to 8 p.m. Friday in the cafeteria as part of the Canyon High School Homecoming celebration.

Members of the Canyon Band parents are sponsoring the supper. Mrs. Carl Johnson is chairman for the event.

Profits from the supper will be spent on regular band activities, Mrs. Johnson said.

Tickets are $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for students for a meal which will include homemade cake or pie for dessert.

Whole pies and cakes will be on sale, as will be souvenir decals of the Canyon Eagles and the Canyon High School band. Another item on sale will be 45 r.p.m. records of the Canyon High School Marching Band and Stage Band at $1.50 each.

The Pampa High School Band plans to eat its evening meal at the supper before going to the game.

Carruth, Blanscet Hear Romney

Dr. T. Paige Carruth, vice-president for student affairs at West Texas State University, and Gary W. Blanscet, president of the Student Association, represented the school at the Presidents to Presidents Conference sponsored by the Association of Student Governments in Washington on Oct. 1.

Housing and Urban Development Secretary George Romney spoke to the group, saying that to compete effectively with other skilled and able nations the United States needs "policies that permit every American to have equal opportunity to develop his talents and abilities to the full extent of his willingness to do so."

Route C would run along the east city limits of Canyon, and Route D would run through the center of the city along U.S. 87.

Chamber members appeared before the county commission Monday urging them to reconsider their recommendation of route A, which was given last year also. The court said they would make a decision by Friday.

Knowles also appeared before the planning and zoning board last Friday evening requesting they recommend route E to the city dads. The board suggested to the city commission that route E be supported in negotiating with the highway department and B be used as an alternative.

In 1963 he received the 49th Command Squadron Outstanding NCO Award and was winner of the Toastmaster's Serious Speech contest in 1968.

"Last week (Carl) Brown made a great catch and scored the touchdown, which made everybody realize we were still in the game, but you can't be satisfied when you lose, although we are not too disappointed," Mayfield said.

"We are making some progress, our kicking (punting) game is much improved. But we still lack the ground gaining capability. We really didn't put together a sustained drive against Tulsa."

Head UTA coach John Symank is a former professional griddier and has pattered much of the Maverick's game after the pros. Their offense similar to Tulsa's will feature split backs and quite a bit of passing.

UTA was idle last week and has had two weeks to prepare for the Buffaloes. Mayfield said that you never know what to expect when a team has had a lay off or how much they will try to change during the two weeks. "I think they will use a pro type offense and will throw quite a bit if they cannot establish a running game against us."

The Mavericks also specialize in a 4-3 prototype defense which is custommade for a pass defense. On each pass the Mavericks will be able to call on seven aerial defenders rather than the four to six available to regular defenses.

"All the teams they played were capable of high scores, so their defenses may not be that bad. I am not saying they are that strong," Mayfield added.

Billy Pritchett is again expected to be the main stay in ground game for the Buffs. Pritchett is the leading rusher in the Missouri Valley Conference, averaging 121 steps per game, for a 363 yard total.

Buff quarterback Ed Holwig moved from sixth to fourth in MVC passing statistics this week. Holwig has connected on 18 of 46 attempts for 320 yards.

Tickets for the game are available at the WTSU ticket office located in the Student Union Building.

clared, talking of her desire to become a large animal veterinarian.

Donna, a petite brown-haired youngster, stands about 5'4" and wouldn't carry much weight with a prize-winning bull or a lively quarter horse.

But the size difference doesn't bother her.

"With chutes you can administer to any animal without too much trouble," defended Jan, who herself has been reared on a ranch.

Miss Henson lives with her parents on her granddad's ranch, Walter Graham Ranch, southeast of Canyon.

"I am interested in ag as a profession and this is a pretty good background," Jan stressed.

Each girl has a project which includes buying, feeding, caring for and keeping records on one or several animals.

Donna has five feeder steers which she purchased in June of this year. But owning and raising cattle isn't a new thing to her. Since she was six years old she has handled horses, steers, some dairy cattle, and even sheep at one time.

Jan has owned four cows and calves and last year helped her brother Walter show his heifer.

"That when I seriously began thinking of taking ag," Jan recalled.

This year her project is a heifer. Neither girl recommends ag as a course to breeze through.

"It's not easy if you get anything out of it," Jan noted.

"Ag is a profession like showing animals and that sort of thing. It is not worth your time if you don't want it as a profession," Donna supported.

But Donna did encourage more girls to take an interest in ag, "so they would know what people have to go through to get good meat — maybe they would appreciate it more."

And both girls thought an all-girls ag class would be good.

"They could ask questions that we feel slow to ask," Jan explained.

She said she hates to ask some questions in front of the boys, because the boys already know the answers and we don't."

"It would be harder for some girls because they would start out knowing less than the boys, and they would be slower ask questions," both girls agreed.

But the two females say the boys don't treat them differently because "they know we want to learn."

At least in the classroom they are not treated differently, but that first meeting of FFA was a tough one. "They gave us the wierdiest looks," quipped Jan.

"But the boys are adjusting and they are taking it calmly," said instructor Leroy Groves, with a tongue-in-cheek look.

Four Chamber Directors To Be Elected

Eight names will appear on a Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors ballot to be mailed this month by the local chamber.

President Eddie Knowles said four receiving the highest number of votes will serve a three year term on the chamber board beginning Jan. 1, 1972.

Those names appearing on the ballot are George Louderder, Weldon Trice, Ray Grimes, Lt. Col. John Childs, Raymond Raillard, Larry Hooper, Jim Brown and John O'Connor.

Leaving the board will be Dr. Willis Harrison, Jim Christopher, Ralph Mardis, and Gerald Warwick.

Those remaining on the board will include Knowles, Eddie Holcolm, Gene Glazener, Dr. Robert West, Kenneth Thompson, Charles Smallwood, David West and Cary Magness.

All Canyon merchants who are members of the chamber will receive the ballots.

County...

Representatives from the chamber, headed by president Eddie Knowles, urged the county commission to reconsider their recommendation of Route A.

Knowles pointed out the chamber supported route B last year, before interchanges had been shown. He said they had been told that an interchange would not be built on Fourth Ave., so the chamber had voted against that route.

"But when we got to the meeting Tuesday we saw interchanges marked for Fourth Avenue, and that would be a much better route for the good of the city and the county," Knowles urged. "If you take any route other than A the road will cut through irrigation wells beginning around seven miles north of Happy," countered Commissioner Glenn Dowlen. "That is part of the richest land in the county."

Knowles explained that definite routes have not been drawn by the highway department.

They told us at the hearing that these routes could vary around a quarter of a mile either direction," he said.

Appearing with Knowles were J.D. Byrd, Joe Giddens, Benny Cooper, Chamber manager Roland Black, Mrs. W.E. Parker.

Also at the session to hear the discussion were Charles Gerald and Wesley Cox.

Gerald urged commissioners to "take a long, hard look at the routes."

"Route E would rejuvenate the west end of town," he continued.

"Sometimes you have to spend money to make money," he said concerning the $2.5 million difference between routes A and E.

Route A would run around $12.9 million and route E would cost an estimated $15.7 million.

"All of us are ultimately interested in the growth of the community and the county, so I think we should take a long look at this thing," Gerald concluded.

Cox commented that from his conversations with people around town, the majority seemed to prefer route E.

"We want the route that would help the town and the county," he said, stressing that he had come to listen rather than participate.

Mrs. Parker said until the hearing Tuesday, no one had a clear picture of the by-pass. She was replying to a query from one commissioner who asked why the business leaders were just now taking a stand on route E.

"Also we did not think we could get an interchange on Fourth," she continued.

Mrs. Parker also stressed to commissioners that a route whereby Canyon can realize more business is the important thing.

"If stores don't progress there will be less income, and if stores go out of business, there will be less jobs."

"Any job eliminated is a hardship."

"The western route would be the greatest asset for Canyon and the county," she stated.

The business owner also said she had a guest register in her shop which has some 4,000 signatures from persons who have been in Canyon shopping before they attend the summer musical "TEXAS".

"These are people who live out of town, but who shop in our town. And if the by-pass goes any route but E we will miss them, and they will miss Canyon," she stressed.

Mrs. Parker also noted that any drop in business would cause property to decrease in value, which would cause the county to lose tax dollars.

Butler said it sounded as though businessmen were not considering which route was the best-only which route would help the merchants of Canyon.

"I think route E is the best route," answered Cooper. "It is close to the railroad for industry, it connects with highway 60 at a convenient spot, and it will enable tourists to come through Canyon."

"You will find that the interstate highways are going around small towns," Dowlen told the delegation.

Knowles said after getting the feeling of the people of Canyon, "I plan to fight A and try to obtain E."

He alluded that the battle may end in court.

County Judge Woody Pond thanked the group for attending the court and encouraged them to "keep fired up."

"I'm glad someone is interested enough to come in and talk with us about it," said Fletcher. "No one has bothered to come before us about this and I am willing to reconsider my thinking about it."

Eagles, Pampa Harvesters Vie In Non-District Tilt

The Canyon Eagles and the Pampa Harvesters will match identical 3-1 records Friday in Buffalo Bowl as Canyon High celebrates homecoming.

The Harvesters ripped Lawton, Okla. 14-9 last week. Lawton sported a 19 game win streak prior to that game and are the defending state champs of Oklahoma.

Pampa demolished Perryton, who is in District 1-AAA, 42-6 the week before.

Head Eagle coach Ron Mills stated that the Harvesters would use a wishbone offense Friday. "They have two boys in the backfield that run better than 10-flat 100's. The quarterback is bigger and stronger than the Caprock signal-caller. He is more of a power runner and an excellent ball handler and was named all-district last year."

The massive offense line of Pampa averages better than 200 pounds per man. "They have a tight end who is 6-5 or 6-6 and weighs 240 pounds," Mills added.

The Harvesters will rely on a 4-3 or 5-4 defense to stop the Canyon offense.

"They will probably try to run options against us and get those fast boys outside, but they probably will pass if they can run," Mills said.

"Their offensive line is larger and stronger than Caprock's is, but they do not have a big strong fullback."

Injury-wise the Eagles have yet to have a major injury, although Cliff Prichard may be slowed up a little with a leg injury and Bob Counselor may also be

Tulsa Freshmen Crush Stompers

The Tulsa University freshman gridders dealt the West Texas State Stompers a 41-7 licking courtesy of the aerial accuracy of Bale signal-caller Joe McCulley.

McCulley launched four passes for TD's against the Stompers, while the Bale defenders picked off four of WT's quarterback Mike Wartes.

Buff head coach Gene Mayfield said that at least three times Wartes hit the Stompers receivers in the hands only to have the ball bounce out and the Tulsa people intercepted.

Johnny Jackson, halfback and Scott Hindman, defensive back were injured in the tilt. Jackson hurt his shoulder and Hindman suffered bruised ribs.

McCulley linked up on 13 passes for 325 yards in the tilt. Four of those aerials of 43, 37, 36, and 27 yards were for scores. They posted another 215 yards on the ground.

The Stomper score came on a 13 yard run by Juan Garza. He kicked the PAT.

Bus Schedules "Hardship" Patrons Say

School patrons from the northeast part of the district Tuesday night told trustees that bus schedules are working a hardship on their small children.

Lloyd Triplett said his little girl must board a bus at 6:30 a.m., arrive at Gene Howe School an hour later and then spend another hour waiting for school to start.

Glenn Evans complained that his child spends about four hours on the school bus.

Triplett said that another bus route going within a mile of his home would be much better for his child.

Canyon School District has 18 bus routes supervised by Lawrence Brotherton. Brotherton told the group that a part of the problem is that state regulations will not permit two buses to travel the same route — one for elementary children and one for high school and junior high students.

Two shuttle buses employed by the school are financed solely from local cal funds, Brotherton explained.

School Supt. Jerry Jacobs asked members of the group to work with Brotherton in finding solutions to the busing problems.

Athletic Director Dunny Goode told the board that Tulia probably will drop back to AA football next fall causing a change in the district. He said it seems likely that the vacancy will be filled by a Lubbock team or Brownfield.

Goode noted that Canyon may be moving up to AAAA in the district with Amarillo teams before long.

Jacobs said he believes this is at least four years away.

Coach Ron Mills said he is trying to coordinate the football program so that boys from junior high school through high school are being taught the same basics.

Mills said participation in the program is good and that some 310 boys are included. He reported that out of 375 boys in junior high school, 223 are out for football.

"We're running out of room," the coach declared saying the greatest need is for expanded dressing room facilities.

Mills said an effort is being made in the lower grades to allow every boy that wants to participate to do so. "The sorriest football player might get the most attention," he asserted.

Goode listed three pressing needs for high school football. These, he said, are a field house, a practice field and an indoor off-season workout area.

treated for minor scratches.

Officials said the Spahic family, who were moving their household goods to the base, turned off State Highway 41 into one of the gates at the base and that their car was hit broadside by an oncoming vehicle.

Spahic had returned to the United States in August after a year of service in Vietnam.

Funeral arrangements for the mother and child will be announced by Morrison Funeral Home in Dumas.

Mrs. Spahic was the former Mitzi Schloegle, a native of Tuernitz, Austria. Before coming to the United States in 1970, she had been employed by the State Opera of Vienna. The Spahics were married May 9, 1970.

During her husband's stay in Vietnam, she lived with Spahic's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mo Spahic of Dumas. The baby was born April 25.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Spahic is survived by her mother, Mrs. Maria Schloegle of Tuernitz.

Umbarger News

BY SUSAN DOLLE
It has been noted that newspapers record history just as textbooks do. This week, thanks to clippings saved by Mrs. Ed Evers, that fact was proved to this writer. The articles, dated January 9 were probably written in 1939. Though the concern of the article was about the Europe crisis and the feelings of the German people in Umbarger about Hitler and Nazism, the story has another purpose for the reader today.

A reporter from the AMARILLO DAILY NEWS interviewed Henry Bracht, Bill and George Franks, and Louis Wieck and Father Charles Jansen. Under the title, "Panhandle Minorities," the most important idea was that these men were happy to be in America where they could make a living.

Star-Spangled Banner, our sports, and our free schools. Yes sir, I'll take America, live for her and die for her to protect her ideals."

Another man who wondered at the seeming lack of nationalism in America was Henry Bracht. He said then, "I don't know if the American-born are indifferent or whether it's because they have never seen other countries, but it seems a pity that there are so few people here who seem to realize the greatness of this country." "No country is perfect, but I'll take the United States. We don't have any real, serious problems here. We can work, live, and worship in peace. Other things are unimportant so long as we protect our democracy."

These were words spoken by a man who arrived in the United States knowing one person and having $36 plus a ticket to Umbarger. He learned English chiefly by reading the funny papers and using a dictionary.

Interestingly, none of the five men interviewed thought that involvement in a war was wise. Louis Wieck said "Why can't we realize that we've got no reason to get mixed up in this conflict?...It seems they'll always be at each other's throats. We've got nothing to gain by going to war and everything to gain by staying out."

Father Jansen said, "We have a great heritage here to protect and I believe you'll find all but perhaps a few in Umbarger utterly opposed to America's getting into this war on either side. What do any people want? Home, children, and the right to live by their own wits. That's all these people here want. America gave them these things, so, why should they turn against her? There is no reason for such and I know you'll find here in the heart of Umbarger the teaching and practicing of Americanism."

To sum up, the tenants of a country like America are so simple that the citizens confuse the picture and forget the basic reasons for maintaining a democracy.

Mrs. Evers announces the birth of two great-grandchildren. Joan and Nick Demschok of Towson, Md. had a boy, Mark Christopher on Sept. 21. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evers of Amarillo welcomed Sarah Salome on Sept. 7. Now Mrs. Evers has 36 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Her four children are A.C. Evers of Umbarger, Mrs. Ralph Halter of Graham, Mrs. Earl Fisher of Muenster, and Mrs. Melvin Fenoglio of Azel.

Congratulations to Juanita Hartman, Arlene Koch, Wade Wilhelm and Danny Wilhelm, four 9th grade students at Canyon Junior High who were recently initiated into the National Honor Society.

Ciardi To Speak Oct. 18

John Ciardi, noted American poet, critic and "crusader for the cause of poetry" will speak at West Texas State University Oct. 18.

His 8 p.m. appearance in the Activities Center ballroom is under auspices of the university's Special Programs Committee.

Ciardi has devoted a lifetime to promoting poetry in America. He addresses his writings, he said, primarily to "that body of general readers habitually scorned by the avant garde, in the hope that some among them can be brought to a more than merely general interest in poetry."

Author of more than 25 volumes of poetry for children and adults, he has been poetry editor for Saturday Review since 1956. His translations of Dante's "Inferno," "Purgatorio" and "Paradiso" have been well received by critics and scholars.

Born in 1916 of Italian immigrant parents in Boston's North End and growing up in an Italian-Irish neighborhood of Medford, Mass., where he said, "a lot of lumps and black eyes and an occasional bent nose" were common occurrences, Ciardi came later to depict childhood and adolescence as the most violent times in life.

Ciardi criticized what he called the anemic verse traditionally aimed at youngsters.

He was graduated magna cum laude by Tufts University and received a scholarship at the University of Michigan, where he did graduate work and served as an assistant in the English Department. In 1939, he received a Master of Arts Degree and the Avery Hopwood Award for poetry.

He served on the faculty of the University of Kansas City and in 1946 he became Briggs-Copeland instructor in English at Harvard University.

His first book of poems, "Homeward to America," was published in 1940 and was described by a New York Times critic as a "clear and condensed exposition of youth's sensibility to the modern scene." His second book, "Other Skies," was published seven years later.

In 1955 Ciardi was appointed director of the Bread Loaf Writers Conference, a position he still holds. When he succeeded Amy Loveman as poetry editor of the Saturday Review in 1956 he touched off what editor Norman Cousins described as "the biggest storm of reader protest" in the history of the publication as a result of his critical comments on Anne Morrow Lindbergh's book of verse, "The Unicorn."

His next adventure was into the field of children's poetry, where he distinguished himself with numerous highly-acclaimed works. His "The Reason for the Pelican" was called by Atlantic Monthly critic Charlotte Jackson as "worthy shelf companion for Lewis Carroll and W.S. Gilbert." His volume "How Does A Poem Mean?" became a standard text for high school and college courses in poetry.

Ciardi served as associate professor of English at Rutgers University until 1961 when he resigned to devote more time to writing and public speaking.

In a Saturday Review column in 1962, Ciardi expressed his disillusionment with the academic world, saying his discovery that "the college at which I dreamed of teaching does not, to my knowledge, exist. Today's student wants to be a master sergeant with a pension plan. If a student doesn't want to go for broke in a spiritual gamble, I don't want to waste my time with him," he said.

During 1961-62, Ciardi was host of Accent, a weekly educational television show presented over CBS that featured programs of cultural interest, including musical and dramatic presentations and poetry readings.

Ciardi is a member of the National Institute of Arts and Letters and a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He holds honorary degrees from Tufts University, Wayne University, Ursinus College and Kalamazoo College.

He won the Blumenthal Prize in 1944, the Eunice Tietjens Award in 1945, the Levinson Prize in 1947, the Harriet Monroe Award in 1955 and the Prix de Rome in 1946.

Tickets for Ciardi's lecture are $2 for adults, $1 for non-WTSU students. Admission is free to WTSU students with activity cards, faculty and staff.

Mail orders may be addressed to Special Programs, Activities Center, West Texas State University, Canyon, Texas, 79015.

Mrs. Crawford To Host M-I-L

In a change from the previously announced plan, members of the Palo Duro Mothers-in-Law Club will meet in the home of Mrs. W. R. Crawford, 1206 8th Ave. at 3 p.m. Friday.

Mrs. Fred Marshall will be co-hostess.

Gene Howe News

BY PAULINE HEFLEY

Understand there was a real good attendance at the Gene Howe P.T.A. Monday night. Here comes a real important FLASH...all you parents of the fourth, fifth, and sixth graders be sure and go this coming Monday night, October 11th, when it will be back to school nite for you.

AND, the meeting time has been moved up to 7 so the daddies can get back home to watch the professional football game.

Now isn't that accommodating? So ya'll toodle on up to the little white school house and meet your darling's teacher.

Happy Birthday to Lori and Terry Rudd.

Speaking of the Gene Howe P.T.A. you will be interested to know that Mrs. Darlene Campbell has been asked to fill the unexpired term of office of Mrs. Donna Vance, who had been serving as secretary for the P.T.A. A big congratulations to Darlene and a big "thankyou" to Donna for your contribution.

Happy Birthday to Mike Lovelady.

Speaking of Donna Vance, and we were, we need to elaborate on that situation a little more. The Vances are leaving this Sunday for their new place of abode, which is Bettendorf, Iowa, which is right outside of Davenport, Iowa. But, alas, the neighborhood couldn't let them go without a bidding of fond-farewell.

Those getting together were David and Jessie Coronado, Hank and Gail Licthe, Ronnie and Tonya Holt, Jerry and Claire McMennamy, Jim and Mary Jo Smith, Hayseed and Claudia Call, R.L. and Opal Blakely from Hereford, Eldon and Alva Lee Holmes,

T-Anchor Picks New Officers

Janet Robinson was elected president of the T-Anchor 4-H Club at a meeting Sept. 28 in the Farm Bureau Building.

Other new officers are Rhonda Hales, vice-president; Nancy Horton, secretary; Mary Beth Ward, treasurer, and Jay Findley, reporter.

The club will meet next on Oct. 26.

Members attending were Joan Fischbacher, Glennis Evans, Dan Watkins, Jay Findley, Rhonda Hales, Mary Beth Ward, Matt Griffin, Nancy Horton, Janet Robinson, and Stan Cook.

Miss Cathy Horton and Charles Smallwood were the leaders.

Cameron Is WT Speaker

The Rev. Dan B. Cameron, pastor of First Baptist Church in Pampa, will address business administration students at West Texas State University at 3 p.m. Wednesday.

The Rev. Mr. Cameron, 46, is one of a series of guest lecturers invited by the Council of Executive Consultants to the School of Business to relate their business experience.

A native of Meridian, Miss., he has pastored Baptist churches in five southern states and participated in revival crusades in several foreign countries.

He is a trustee of Hardin-Simmons University and has served as president of District 10 Convention of Texas Baptists, was a member of the executive board of the Texas Baptist Convention and was a trustee of Wayland Baptist College.

Services Held For Thompson

Funeral services for Mrs. Clara May Thompson, 90, were conducted Sept. 30 in Tucson, Ariz. Burial was in Tulia. She died Sept. 29.

Mrs. Thompson was a former Canyon resident. She is survived by a daughter, Miss Sarah Thompson of Tucson; a sister, Mrs. Mattie Axtell of Earth; three brothers, Gordon Jordan of Amarillo and Henry and William Jordan of Tulia, and two grandchildren.

Jim and Carolyn Bostick, Bill and Martha Johnson, Dick and Beth Balke, John and Betty Dozier, Jim and Kay Riley, Bill and Beth Keston, and Earl and Winnie Meisenheimer. This group had a real great time and presented Bill and Donna Vance with a present. We'll sure miss the Vances, but Donna says they will only be there for 18 months. But she also says if any of yall get up in that neck of the woods, you be sure and go by as she feels "Texans" will be few and far between.

Happy Birthday to Lisa Erwin.

It's always nice to stop by Ted Walkers' station on Western. Along with the extra good service, you always pick up some interesting information. For instance, stopped by the other day and said, "Ted, you have any news for my column?" To which he replied, "nope, don't know nothin' except I understand they are going to pump all the water from the Westside of the lake on Western over to the East Side". Then along comes Daddy Walker and I asked him if he would like to make a statement for the Press, to which he replied, "Don't know nothin' new, except they blacktopped Western today". I'll tell you those Walker men are long on words.

Well, they are coming right along with the new cottage on the campus of High Plains Childrens Home on Chapman Road, and, the house parents have been announced - they are Shelby and Glenda Weatherford. A big welcome to Shelby and Glenda and I know they will be fine addition to the community.

Gotta sign off now, yall phone me your news, 376-9853 or 352-2089. Rather reluctant to close with the following little quote, but consider this last paragraph a paradox. Borrowed from Calvin Coolidge... "If you don't say anything, you won't be called upon to repeat it"...pmh

Mrs. Haley To Discuss Kress Collection For Club

Mrs. J. Evetts Haley will speak on the Kress Collection in Washington's National Gallery of Art to a meeting of the Woman's Book Club at 3 p.m. Wednesday at First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Haley is the niece of art collector Samuel H. Kress, who placed his collection in the National Gallery in March, 1941.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt called it "the greatest single gift to any government." The original donation contained 375 paintings, 17 sculptures, and 1300 small bronzes.

Kress, who died in 1955, continued to buy other works and replace those already in the gallery with them. The collection has now grown to more than 20,000 pieces, displayed in rotation.

The pieces he removed were used to start 21 regional gallery collections, including one in El Paso and one in Houston.

Mrs. Haley is the daughter of the late Claude Kress, one of the three founders of the Kress store chain.

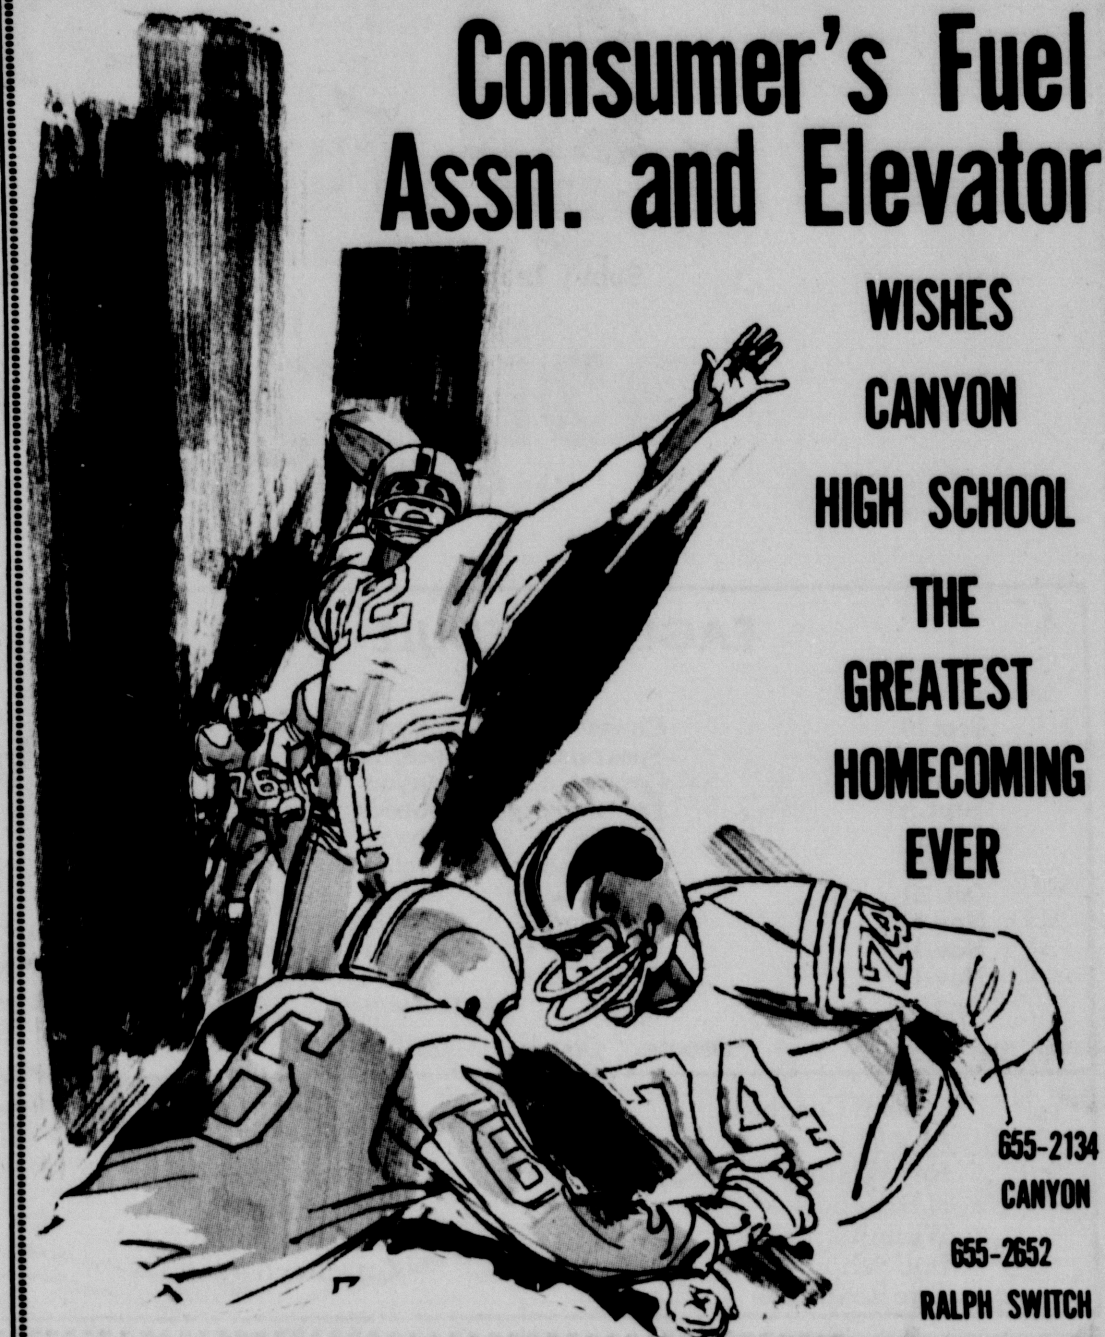

She grew up on Buckfield Plantation in South Carolina.

A member of the DAR, she has experience as a news and radio commentator and a public lecturer. In Savannah, Ga., before her marriage to rancher-writer Haley, she was active in the Historic Savannah Foundation, which has conserved and restored a number of houses, buildings and public squares, and served on the Savannah Board of Education and on the Governor of Georgia's Committee on Education.

She was a 1968 delegate to the Republican National Convention.

WHEN DO YOU HAVE AN EMPTY STOMACH?

Sometimes a physician may direct you to take a medicine on an empty stomach. For example, some penicillin is about twice as effective when taken on an empty stomach. Three hours after a meal all the food in the stomach has moved to the next digestive process. It is empty.

If you do not exactly know how to use any medicine and your physician or dentist is not available to answer questions, ask us. The odds are we can immediately give you the correct answer. Never take chances. We are glad to help.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

Accident Sends Three To Hospital

A three-car accident at the corner of Fifth Avenue and 11th Street at 8 a.m. Tuesday sent three persons to Neblett Memorial Hospital emergency room for treatment.

According to Canyon police officer Jim Warren, the accident involved a pickup driven by Mrs. Doris Connally Sims of Rt. 1, Canyon, a van driven by Mrs. Martha Garner Nagunst of 6321 Canyon Dr., Amarillo, and a car driven by Peggy Crownover Smith of 2615 Thirteenth Ave., Canyon.

Warren said the Nagunst vehicle was travelling north on 11th Street and collided with the Sims pickup, which was going east on Fifth Ave.

The Smith car was travelling west on Fifth Ave.

Treated and released from Neblett were Mrs. Nagunst and her daughter Sandy, and Mrs. Sims.

Hodges Finishes Course

On WT Campus

Dr. Law Speaks Oct.13

Dr. David H. Law, will address students on the West Texas State University campus in Canyon, at 8:00 p.m., Oct. 13.

His talk, titled: "No Guts: A Nutritional Dilemma," is one of a series being given this academic year at more than 80 colleges and universities, sponsored by the American Medical Association Council on Foods and Nutrition.

The program, to be presented in the WT Student Activities Center, will tell undergraduates about recent developments in health care and will try to stimulate interest in medicine and allied health fields. The colleges involved all have pre-medical or biological sciences courses, but are located outside the influence of a large medical center.

Dr. Law joined the University of New Mexico School of Medicine in 1969 as professor and vice-chairman of the Department of Medicine.

He also is medical service chief for the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Albuquerque, and he has published more than 60 papers, primarily about his research in metabolic and the digestive system and its disorders.

He earned his bachelor's and medical degrees at Cornell University and served an internship and a residency at New York Hospital, where he also was director of personnel health service from 1958 to 1960. From there he went to Vanderbilt University Hospital as chief of the Division of Gastroenterology and medical director of the out-patient department. He was on the Vanderbilt School of Medicine faculty and was attending physician in gastroenterology at Thayer Veterans' Administration Hospital before going to New Mexico.

A member of a variety of research, nutrition, and other professional societies, he helped found the Southern Gut Club, an informal society of gastroenterological researchers working in the southeastern states.

3 Children Injured In Accident

Three children were treated and released from Neblett Memorial Hospital Sunday morning after a two-car accident west of the city.

Ray Lee Johnson of Rt. 1 Canyon is father of the three youngsters and was driving a 1966 stationwagon south on Farm to market 2590, according to investigating officers.

Driver of a 1971 car also involved was Taylor Jordan Myers, also of Rt. 1, Canyon.

The injured were Gwenda Johnson, 6, Lyndon Johnson, 10, and Chris Johnson, 8.

In a second accident over the weekend, two cars collided at the intersection of Seventh Ave. and 17th Street.

Walter Elmer Crammer of 1200 Seventh Ave., was driving one car and Jerry LaGrone of 1812 Fifth Ave. was driver of the second vehicle.

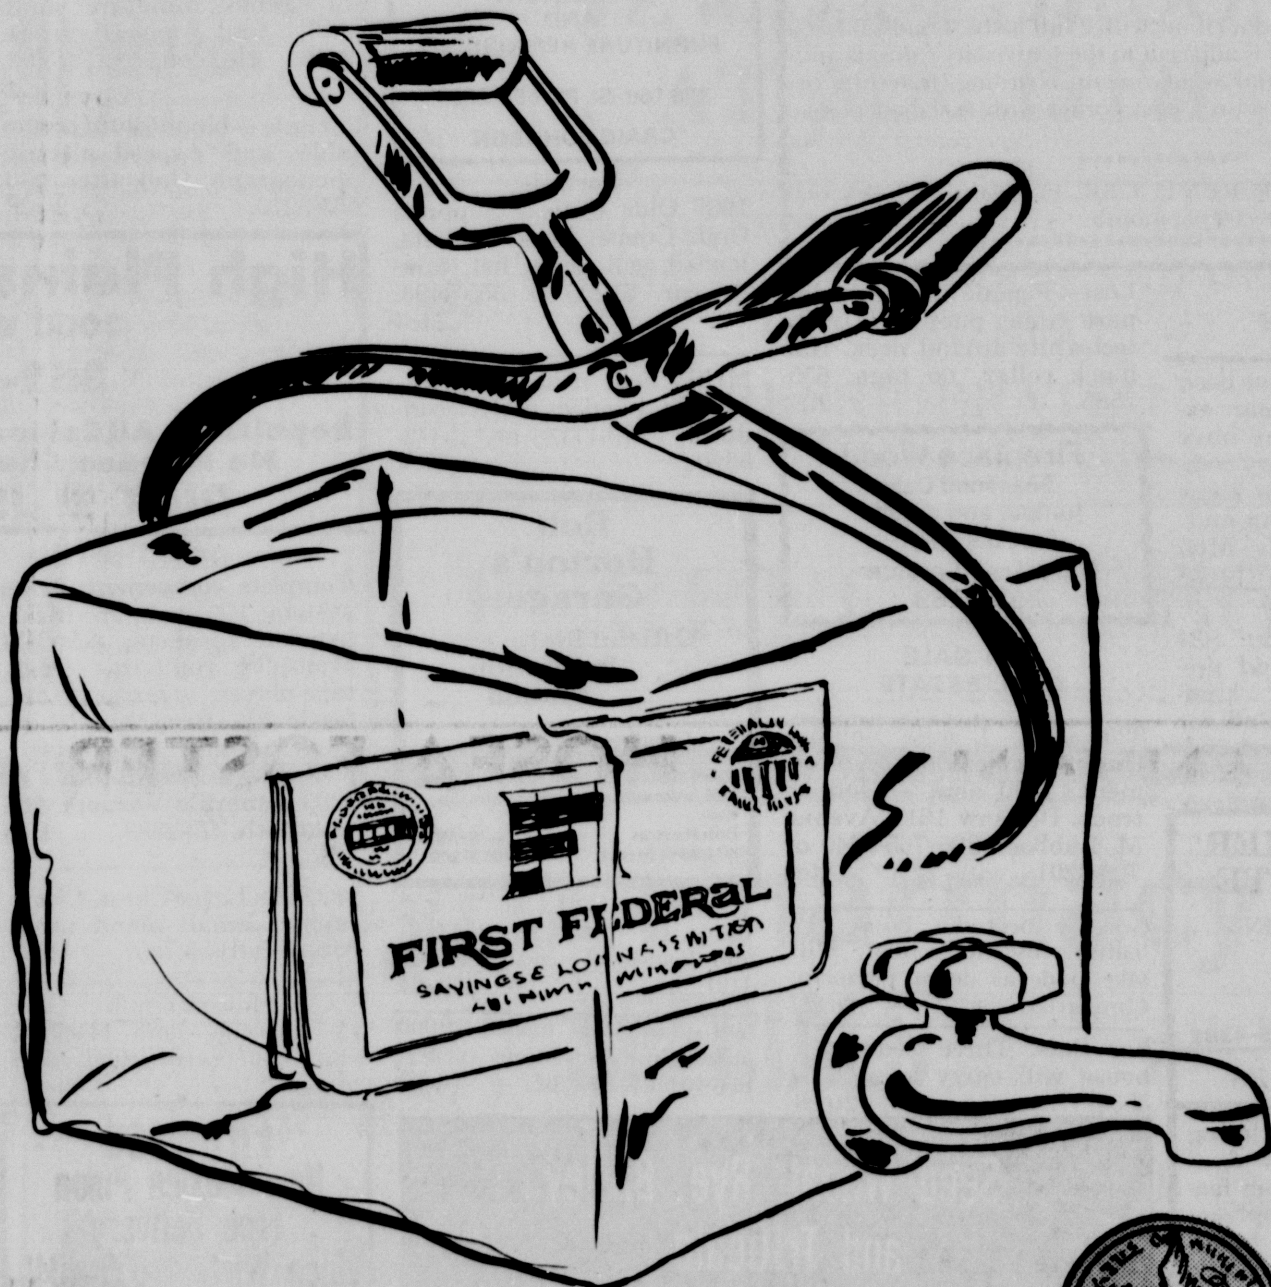

No injuries were reported.

Canyon Folks Place In Fair

Louis G. Hinders of Canyon showed the grand champion female holstein cow at the 54th annual Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock last week.

Hinders also showed the reserve grand champion female and the premier exhibitor and premier breeder along with the senior champion female.

Mike Hinders showed the junior champion female in the holstein class and Sharon Hinders showed the champion holstein in the junior show. David Hinders showed the reserve champion holstein in the junior show.

In the Performance class of the quarter horse show, Sally Schwartz of Canyon placed second in the junior western pleasure division.

Canyon Gridders Lambaste Alamo

The Canyon seventh and eighth grade Purple teams romped over the Alamo Catholic gridders Saturday in Amarillo.

The seventh graders topped Alamo 20-6, while the eighth grade Purple gridders ripped Alamo 28-0.

A 55-yard pass-run play from Randy Langen to Jonathan Hull lit the scoreboard for the first Canyon seventh grade score. Hull scampered two yards for the PAT.

Ronnie Whitnew scored the two final Canyon seventh grade TD's on runs of 20 and 15 yards.

Langen was named the most outstanding offensive back of the game, while Mack Sullivan was picked the outstanding defensive back. Mark Lawrence and Ronnie Whitney were named the outstanding offensive and defensive linemen of the tilt.

In the eighth grade tilt of offensive back Don Thompson ran for three touchdowns and Phillip Halstead added another in Canyon's 28-0 romp.

Thompson was named the offensive most outstanding back, and Wayne Robinson took the defensive back honors. Timmy Pierce was selected the most outstanding offensive and defensive lineman of the tilt.

Brown, McKinney Are 'Most Outstanding'

Offensive end Carl Brown and linebacker Bill McKinney were named the outstanding players in the WTSU-Tulsa game, according to assistant Buff coach Leldon Hensley.

Hensley filled in for head coach Gene Mayfield at the Monday night meeting of the Buff Booster Club. Mayfield was in Tulsa with the freshman Buffs.

"We are in better shape now injury-wise than we have been all season," Hensley said. Daryl Winn has a slight ankle injury but he is okay and Dewayne Sexton (center) is still hobbling a bit from his injury.

"He (Sexton) couldn't run much in the game Saturday, but he could still center and he did us a fine job," Hensley added.

When asked if he felt if the Tulsa gridders were down mentally at the game Saturday after having beaten

Arkansas the week before Hensley said, "I don't really know; but they looked like they were trying pretty hard to me. Their defense was more aggressive against us than they were against Arkansas."

"We felt pretty good about the defense, 'course we were disappointed with the runback. They blocked us pretty well on that and with a player as good as number one (Ralph McGill) you don't have to make but a little mistake for it to hurt you."

"Bill (McKinney) had a real good steady game Saturday night. Offensively he blocks very well. If we could just get enough energy out of him he could really help our offense, but we need him too badly on defense to leave him in both ways (offensive guard and defensive linebacker) all the time. Ronnie Bassett will probably start in his place at guard next week," Hensley said.

Bassett is a 6-0, 214 pound true sophomore. He earned three letters in football and baseball while attending Fort Worth's I.M. Terrell High School.

"Arlington has some good individuals, but not a real good team," Hensley commented. Arlington has dropped three straight games. Those losses coming against University of Texas at El Paso, TCU and Toledo, which has the longest winning streak currently of any college.

The Arlington offense has scored but nine points this season, those coming against UTEP.

"The Arlington coach played pro football for awhile so their offense is pro oriented with several split backs and quite a bit of passing — like we saw this week," Hensley said.

They have a real good running back named Harvey. He is kind of an exciting type runner," Hensley concluded.

Stubblefield To Head Quarterhorse Group

Scott Stubblefield, WTSU freshman from Tyler, was elected president of the American Junior Quarter Horse Association last weekend as the group wound up its second annual convention at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas.

Stubblefield, who is majoring in agricultural business and economics, was named all-around champion at the Texas Junior Quarter Horse Association finals held in Waco this summer after winning several individual events.

He trains his own horses and a few for other people.

As vice-president of the Texas organization, Stubblefield helped plan the 1970 finals and is on the board of directors of the Trinity Association.

Representatives from 21 states and two provinces in Canada attended the two-day meeting of the youth movement, membership in which now exceeds 4,000 in the United States and Canada.

The delegates made plans for the 1972 American Junior finals and convention and named a committee to implement plans and select a site.

Subdivision To Choose Conservation Director

A director for Subdivision 3 of the Palo Duro Soil and Water Conservation District will be chosen at 8 p.m. Oct. 11 at the Jowell Community Center, according to Edward Wieck, chairman of the district board of directors.

All owners of agricultural land within the subdivision who are 21 or over may vote, as may their spouses, according to John O'Connor of the Soil Conservation Service.

The subdivision includes the part of Randall County south of Farm Road 1714 and west of U.S. Highway 87.

Bob McCasland is currently director for the subdivision. Other directors for the district are E.E. Sharp, C.V. Conatser, Marshall, Rockwell, and Wieck.

Club Plans Sunday Tour

Homes Reflect Families

The Bruce Winns have built their five-bedroom home on the grounds of the Canyon Country Club in a tree-shaded setting near the golf course which provides much of their family recreation.

Residences To Be Seen

Mrs. Virginia Cotton reads before the metal fireplace in her den. She planned the home herself and ordered many of its fixtures made to order in Mexico.

Four Will Open Houses To Public

BY NELL WILLIAMS

Four Canyon homes will be on view Sunday under the auspices of the University Study Club.

Mrs. Wayne Wirt, chairman of the tour committee, said that the houses of Mrs. Virginia Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. John Sommer, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Winn, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom McClure would be on display from 2 to 6 p.m.

Tickets are available from club members at $1 each or may be bought at the doors of the homes.

Refreshments are to be served at the Winn house.

Committee members are Mesdames H.R. Fulton, Kenneth Laycock, Richmond Hales, John Womack, and Lee Roy Moreland.

THE BRUCE WINN HOME on the grounds of the Canyon Country Club is a five-bedroom, two-bath brick home with a sunken living room.

A brick wall in the living room incorporates a fireplace and an archway leading into the dining room. The row of trophies on the mantel helps explain the family's choice of site. "We all enjoy golfing," said Mrs. Winn.

The 20x17 foot master bedroom leads into its own dressing room and bath.

The country club setting gives the house a hill for a backdrop and a sloping lawn shaded with native trees.

Winn manages Winn Brothers Farm. His wife teaches fifth grade at Happy.

The four children are Karen, 18, Nancy, 16, Dinah, 12, and Sandy, 11.

Signs will direct tour-goers to the Winn house, said Mrs. Wirt. The home is located east of the clubhouse and is reached by driving across the clubhouse parking lot, through a gate into the club's picnic grounds, and across a bridge. The house is to the south of the road.

THE VIRGINIA COTTON HOME, 1403 Hillcrest, was "made to measure," said its owner, who even measured clothes on the rod to see how many feet of closet space she should plan.

She also measured bottles and jars before sizing her kitchen storage areas and had the cabinets built "tall" to accommodate her own height.

She planned the house herself and many of the light fixtures and other such items were made in Mexico.

The three-bedroom, two-bath house has both a garage and a carport, and the covered back porch on two sides of the house is enhanced by a fenced-in yard full of trees.

"I planned it for us," she said, adding that her daughters, Vanessa, 12, and Celia, 8, make much use of the porch and yard, especially during the summer.

Mrs. Cotton is a graduate assistant at West Texas State University and is working on a master's degree in business education.

THE TOM MCCLURE HOME north of the Canyon Country Club was designed on "a big, blank piece of paper," said Mrs. McClure.

"We owned the land for several years before we built, and we walked all over it."

Some people, she said, call the design eclectic, but "modgepodge" is her own word for it.

"This is for us," she gestured, indicating the whole house. Art objects are "things we did or something we had a hand in. The pictures are painted by people we know, or we helped plan them."

Much of the furniture they refinished themselves. The dining area features a long buffet full of built-ins, even to a serving cart which rolls out for use during parties or clean-up.

The master bedroom is also provided with much built-in storage space and a built-in dressing table with its own lavatory and doors that can shut it out of sight when it is not in use.

The bathroom off this bedroom has doors made of sliding fiberwood panels backed with topaz glass.

The house has a lighting system supplied with rheostats so that illumination may be dim or bright, a feature included in the chandeliers.

The house is insulated with a spray-on foam and roofed with metal.

McClure is a partner in Hallmark Builders, Inc.

The couple's children are Donna, 6, and John, 8.

Signs pointing the way to the house from the Winn home will be put up by the study club, according to Mrs. Wirt. It may also be reached by taking the VFW road north from the Hereford Highway, and turning left at the second paved road. That road leads to the back gate of the Canyon Country Club, and the road which forks off to the right outside the gate enters the McClure property.

THE HOME OF MR. AND MRS. JOHN SOMMER, 1103 Creekmere, is full of furnishings that the couple have worked on together. Sommer usually does the building and his wife, the finishing.

Their walnut bedroom set is his handiwork, and the bed has a headboard made from a length of iron fence railing.

"Every room has something we built, or re-styled, or finished," said Mrs. Sommer.

The beige and gray brick home has four bedrooms and two baths.

The Sommers said they do not collect antiques except for family items, but her grandfather's pump organ stands in the living room and a cotton scale dating back 80 or 90 years hangs over the mantel in the den. It is a relic of his family.

Near the organ hang a cuckoo clock Sommer brought back from Germany just after World War II and a decoupage magazine cover—"Die Deutsche Hausfrau" for July, 1905. Mrs. Sommer said a friend gave her the cover because, "I was the only German housewife he knew."

The Sommer children also occasionally make things for their own rooms, said their mother. The children are Sheryl, 14, Karen, 12, Barbara, 8, and Bruce, 4.

Sommer is principal of Canyon High School. Mrs. Sommer teaches third grade at Rex Reeves School.

Mrs. Virginia Cotton hands daughter Celia, 8, a drink of water through the sliding window which opens onto the covered back porch of their home. The kitchen window is also used for serving when she entertains.

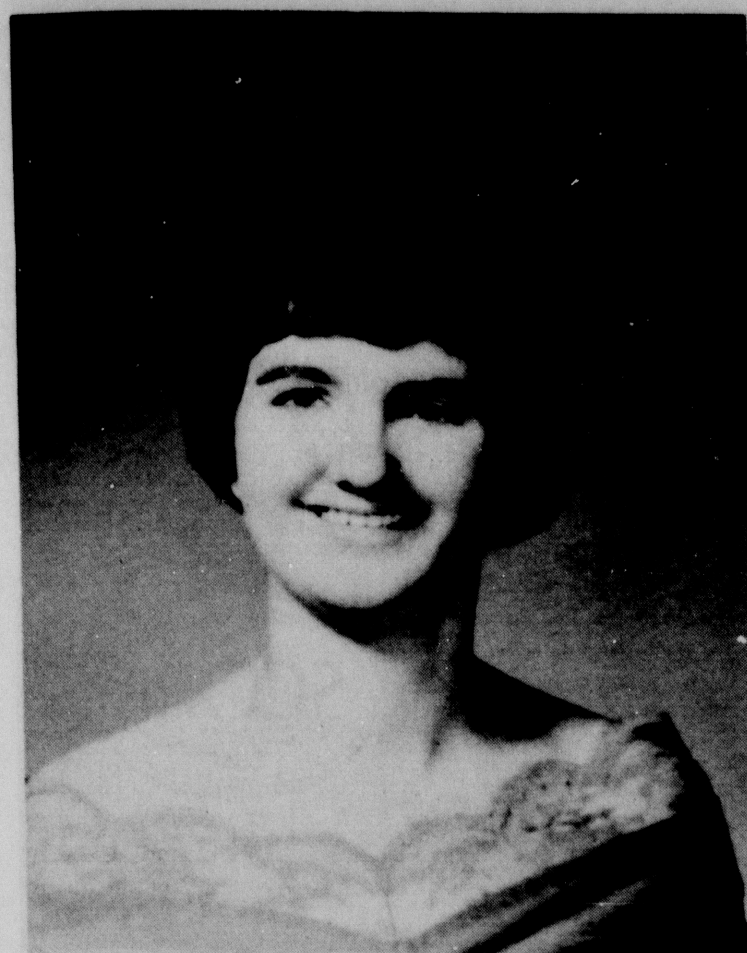

Mrs. Tom McClure sits before the built-in dressing table in the master bedroom in her home. The table has its own running water.

Mrs. John Sommer sits in a master bedroom furnished by her husband's cabinet-making skill. The walnut furniture is all his work, as is the iron-railing headboard on the bed.

Mrs. John Sommer plays her grandfather's pump organ which she and her husband refinished and have in their living room. The German clock on the wall came across the Atlantic with Sommer after his military service in Germany.
